“ Ruth was someone I wish I had more opportunities to know. As part of the Smith girls which included my mother-in-law Ferne, their family was so close. Our trips to Oklahoma always included wonderful memories of Ruth. She will be missed and held close in my heart. Rest well in the embrace of our Father.

“ I'll miss Ruth. She called me Aimless and I called her Ruthless. I'll never forget studying the book of Proverbs every Sunday as a youth with Ruth, nor will I forget her delicious birthday desserts she made for every one of our birthdays. I imagine she's already joined the heavenly choir. My prayers are with you all, her children, grandchildren, great and great great grand children.

“ Such a dear lady who could always be counted on to bring a laugh, especially when trading banter with Ed Roger's. I wish I had known her better but it would only have served to like and respect her more. I know Heaven welcomed her with open arms and joyous reunions.
